

VM ART GALLERY

OF THE ZVMG RANGOONWALA TRUST

MALAWI

A series of photographs exploring wildlife, nature and culture from the heart of Africa.

By Laurence Savary

OPENING: MONDAY, 15TH JULY - 5PM
SHOW CONTINUES TILL 23RD JULY 2019
GALLERY TIMINGS: 11AM - 7PM (MON - SAT)

Savary traveled to Malawi thrice between 2017 and 2018, spending time in nature and with the families of Cape Town. Her photographs provide an insight into the local culture and communities of the region, positioning her as a traveler relaying stories across cultures and countries in order to foster greater empathy and trust. The series is a follow-up to her 2014 exhibition at VM Art Gallery, "Colourwalk to South Africa."

"My initial curiosity was about botany on the rift plateaux, but then I discovered marine life in the lake, savanna animals at Nyika Plateau, the missionary architecture, and the warm hospitality of Malawian families and Christian communities around the Cape."

About Artist:

Laurence graduated in international business and technology management in France. As a MBA student, she visited Pakistan to analyse the market for artist materials and first met Riffat Alvi at VM Art Gallery in 1989.

Her business career developed in market analysis, business intelligence, procurement, business development and corporate strategy. She first conducted assignments in Asia, US, and Europe, then settled in France and South Africa. She started photography in 2011 to share Cape beauty (botany, human hair, cultural events..) exhibiting in public places (e.g. churches, schools, libraries,..) and invited artists to inspire from her photographs to express their own arts (e.g. poetry, dance, fashion design..) during workshops and multi-dimensional art events. Since 2011, she has organised more than 50 exhibitions in South Africa (Western and Eastern Cape) and overseas (Switzerland, Malawi, Pakistan), with publics ranging from primary schools, autistic students, to adults, artists, and old age home residents.

She is now on a quest to better understand Africa where she lived for 25 years (Johannesburg, Cape Town). Recently she visited Malawi, and now she develops text and language focus as she designs a global app to facilitate encounters in more than 20 African and international languages.
