VM Art Gallery is proud to present 'A Winter's Tale', a group exhibition featuring the works of Adeen Habib, Andrea Anthony, Fariha Fatima, Mahnoor Zubair, Qasim Joyo, and Suneeha Tahir.

The exhibition opens on Saturday, December 14th, 2024 from 5 pm to 9 pm and will continue till Saturday, December 28th, 2024 with gallery timings from 11 am to 7 pm Monday to Saturday.

'A Winter's Tale' journeys into the heart of winter through the eyes of six artists, each capturing the season's mystery, wonder, and quiet allure. The exhibition reveals winter in all its forms, from the warmth of Christmas gatherings and cherished childhood memories to the serene beauty of coastal winters and the emotional depth of human connection. These winter tales evoke feelings of enchantment, nostalgia, and contemplation, whispering of tranquil moments in nature, poignant memories of winter's past, and the vibrant energy of winter soirées, where every dance and glance conveys a deeper, unspoken story.

Adeen Habib

Adeen Habib is a South Asian artist known for her contemporary paintings that explore socio-political themes through vibrant scenes of celebration and soirées. Over the past two years, she has exhibited at prestigious galleries, including a private show for the British High Commissioner and the Haryali exhibition at the Danish Ambassador's residence. Adeen's work has been featured in Pakistan and London, and she recently collaborated with Rastah for their Volume 12 collection, set to debut in New York this fall.
